

What's new for 2015?

The Alberta non-refundable tax credits have been increased to offset inflation.

Four new income tax rates have been added for taxable income over $125,000.

Form AB428, Alberta Tax and Credits, reflects these changes.

General information

Alberta family employment tax credit

This credit is a non-taxable amount paid to families with working income that have children under 18 years of age. This program is fully funded by the Province of Alberta. The amount is split into two payments and is paid separately from the Canada child tax benefit.

For more information on the payment amounts, see Booklet T4114, Canada Child Benefits.

There is no need to apply separately to get payments under this program. We will use the information from your Canada child benefits application to determine your eligibility for the program.

File your tax return – You (and your spouse or common-law partner) should file your 2015 tax return(s) as soon as possible. The information you give on your return(s) will determine the amount you will receive in July 2016 and January 2017.

For more information, call 1-800-959-2809.

Completing your Alberta form

All the information you need to calculate your Alberta tax and credits is included on the following pages. You will find two copies of Form AB428, Alberta Tax and Credits, in this book. Attach a completed copy of Form AB428 to your return.

The following information will help you complete Form AB428.

The terms spouse and common-law partner are defined in the General Income Tax and Benefit Guide.

The term end of the year means December 31, 2015, the date you left Canada if you emigrated in 2015, or the date of death for a person who died in 2015.

Tax Tip

Many rules for calculating Alberta tax are based on the federal Income Tax Act. As a result, you should calculate your federal tax first.

Form AB428, Alberta Tax and Credits

Complete Form AB428 if you were a resident of Alberta at the end of the year.

If you had income from a business (including income you received as a limited or non-active partner), and the business has a permanent establishment outside Alberta, complete Form T2203, Provincial and Territorial Taxes for 2015 – Multiple Jurisdictions, instead of completing Form AB428.

You also have to complete Form AB428 if you were a non-resident of Canada in 2015 and you earned income from employment in Alberta or received income from a business with a permanent establishment only in Alberta.

Step 1 – Alberta non-refundable tax credits

The eligibility criteria and rules for claiming the Alberta non-refundable tax credits are the same as for the federal non-refundable tax credits. However, the value and calculation of some Alberta non-refundable tax credits are different from the corresponding federal credits.

Transferring and carrying forward amounts

You may not need all of your 2015 tuition and education amounts to reduce your provincial income tax to zero. In this case, you can transfer all or some of the unused part to one person, either your spouse or common-law partner (who would claim it on line 5864) or your or your spouse's or common-law partner's parent or grandparent (who would claim it on line 5860).

You can only transfer an amount to your parent or grandparent, or your spouse's or common-law partner's parent or grandparent, if your spouse or common-law partner does not claim an amount for you on line 5812 or 5864.

Complete the "Transfer/Carryforward of unused amount" section of Schedule AB(S11) to calculate the provincial amount available to transfer, as well as Form T2202A, Tuition, Education, and Textbook Amounts Certificate, TL11A, Tuition, Education, and Textbook Amounts Certificate – University Outside Canada, TL11B, Tuition, Education, and Textbook Amounts Certificate – Flying School or Club, or TL11C, Tuition, Education, and Textbook Amounts Certificate – Commuter to the United States, to designate who can claim the transferred amount and to specify the amount this person can claim. This amount may be different from the amount calculated for the same person on your federal Schedule 11. Enter the provincial amount you are transferring on line 20 of your Schedule AB(S11).

Tax Tip

If you are transferring an amount to a designated individual, only transfer the amount this person can use. That way, you can carry forward as much as possible to use in a future year.

Complete the "Transfer/Carryforward of unused amount" section of Schedule AB(S11) to calculate the amount you can carry forward to a future year. This amount corresponds to the part of your tuition and education amounts you do not need to use (and do not transfer) for the year.

The student cannot transfer to you any unused tuition and education amounts carried forward from a previous year.

If you and the student were residents of different provinces or territories on December 31, 2015, special rules may apply. Contact the Canada Revenue Agency to determine the amount you can claim on line 5860.

Other rules may apply if the student has a spouse or a common-law partner. Read line 324 in the General Income Tax and Benefit Guide.

However, your total expenses have to be more than either 3% of your net income (line 236 of your return) or $2,353, whichever is less.
