

Taxpayer Relief Request Statement of Income and Expenses and Assets and Liabilities for Individuals

Information to help you complete this form

- Use this form to provide full financial disclosure to support your taxpayer relief request to cancel interest or penalties based on your inability to pay or financial hardship (see below for definitions and examples).
- Complete this form and Form RC4288, Request for Taxpayer Relief. Send both forms together with all the supporting documentation (see below for definitions and examples) to the appropriate intake centre as indicated on Form RC4288. You may submit photocopies of supporting documentation.
- If you are completing this form by hand, please print clearly. Attach an extra sheet if there is not enough space in any section of the form.
- For more information about the taxpayer relief provisions, see Information Circular IC07-1, Taxpayer Relief Provisions or GST/HST Memorandum 16-3, Cancellation or Waiver of Penalties and/or Interest, or go to the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) taxpayer relief Web pages at www.cra.gc.ca/taxpayerrelief.

Definitions and examples

Ability to pay: A taxpayer's current and future capacity to pay or borrow money, including the ability to borrow against significant assets or liquidate significant non-essential assets to raise money for repayment, and avoiding repayment terms that will cause undue hardship.

Financial hardship: For an individual taxpayer, financial hardship refers to financial suffering or lack of what is needed for basic living requirements, such as food, clothing, shelter, medical expenses, and reasonable non-essentials.

Household net income: The net income of the taxpayer and the taxpayer's spouse or common-law partner.

Supporting documentation: To support a request for relief based on an inability to pay or financial hardship, it is the taxpayer's responsibility to provide relevant documentation that supports their financial situation. Documentation could include, but is not limited to, the following:

- employment and/or other income statements or slips
- mortgage statement
- lease or rental agreement
- property tax assessment and/or condo fees
- loan statements
- utility statements
- bank statements (most recent three months)
- investment statements
- credit card statements
- insurance (e.g., auto, home, life) statements

Note: You may submit photocopies of supporting documents.
