

DESIGNATION OF A PROPERTY AS A PRINCIPAL RESIDENCE BY AN INDIVIDUAL (OTHER THAN A PERSONAL TRUST)

Use this form to designate a property as a principal residence and to calculate the capital gain for the year you:

- disposed of, or were considered to have disposed of, your principal residence, or any part of it; or granted someone an option to buy your principal residence, or any part of it.

Attach one copy of this form to your return only if a capital gain has to be reported. If the property is designated as your principal residence for all the years in which you owned it, there is no capital gain.

Note

If you were not a resident of Canada for the entire time you owned the designated property, call 1-800-959-8281. Your period of non-residence may reduce or eliminate the availability of the principal residence exemption.

The term spouse used throughout this form applies to a person to whom you are legally married. For 1993 to 2000, a spouse included a common-law spouse. For 2001 and future years, the reference to spouse is replaced with spouse or common-law partner as defined in the "Definitions" section in Guide T4037, Capital Gains.

Note

If you made an election to have your same-sex partner considered your common-law partner for 1998, 1999, and/or 2000, then, for those years, your common-law partner also could not designate a different housing unit as his or her principal residence.

If you disposed of, or were considered to have disposed of, a property for which you or your spouse or common-law partner filed Form T664 or T664(Seniors), Election to Report a Capital Gain on Property Owned at the End of February 22, 1994, use this form to calculate the capital gain for the year if:

- the property was your principal residence for 1994; or you are designating the property in this form as your principal residence for any tax year.

You may be entitled to a reduction as a result of the capital gains election. To calculate this reduction, use Form T2091(IND)-WS, Principal Residence Worksheet. To get this form, go to www.cra.gc.ca/forms or call 1-800-959-8281.

For more information about designating a principal residence and what qualifies as a principal residence, see Income Tax Folio S1-F3-C2, Principal Residence, or the "Principal residence" chapter in Guide T4037, Capital Gains.

Designation

For the purpose of this form, the acquisition date is the date on which you acquired or last reacquired the property, or December 31, 1971, whichever is later. However, if you or your spouse or common-law partner filed Form T664 or T664(Seniors), you or your spouse or common-law partner are not considered to have disposed of and immediately reacquired the property as a result of that election.

Note

If the property was designated as a principal residence for the purpose of filing Form T664 or T664(Seniors), you have to include those previously designated tax years as part of this principal residence designation.

Description of property designated:

I, (print your name), hereby designate the property described above to have been my principal residence for the following tax years ending after the acquisition date:

a) (specify which tax years after 1971 and before 1982)

b) (specify which tax years after 1981)

For those years before 1982, I confirm that I have not designated any other property as my principal residence.

For those years after 1981, I also confirm that neither I, nor my spouse or common-law partner (who was not separated and living apart from me throughout the year under a judicial separation or written separation agreement), nor any of my children (who were under 18 and unmarried or not in a common-law partnership throughout the year) designated any other property as a principal residence. For any tax year after 1981 for which I am designating the property and throughout which I was under 18 and unmarried or not in a common-law partnership, I also confirm that neither my mother, father, nor any of my brothers and sisters (who were under 18 and unmarried or not in a common-law partnership throughout the year) designated any other property as a principal residence.
