

Supplementary Unemployment Benefit Plan Income Tax Return

- As trustee for a trust governed by a supplementary unemployment benefit plan, you have to file this form no later than 90 days after the end of the tax year. The tax year of the trust is the calendar year.
Note: When a trustee responsible for filing this return does not act as administrator of the supplementary unemployment benefit plan, the trustee is still responsible for obtaining and reporting the required information.
- If the plan is not registered under the Income Tax Act throughout its period of operation or existence during the tax year, the income of the trust may be taxable. To report taxable income or claim a Part XII.2 tax credit, complete Form T3RET, Trust Income Tax and Information Return. You can get a copy of Guide T4013, T3 Trust Guide, and the T3 Trust Forms Package at www.cra.gc.ca.
- After you complete the T3S return, send it to the Summerside Tax Centre. You can find the address on page 2 of this return. Starting in January 2016, you will have the option to file this return over the internet.
- We will charge penalties if this return is not filed on time. We charge interest at the prescribed rates on any amounts owing.

Direct Deposit – Start or change

This area does not have to be completed every year. Do not complete this area if the trust's direct deposit information has not changed.

To start direct deposit or to change information already provided to the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA), the legal representative must complete Form T3-DD, Direct Deposit Request for T3, or complete the banking information below. By signing and dating this form, you certify that you are the legal representative and that the information given on the form is correct and complete. You also authorize the CRA to deposit any amounts payable to the trust by the CRA in the trust's bank account provided, until otherwise notified by the legal representative. This authorization will replace all of the trust's previous direct deposit authorizations.

Send a "void" cheque or a letter/form stamped by the financial institution showing that the account is in the name of the trust.
