

Read the back before filling out this form. Your employer or payer will use this form to determine the amount of your territorial tax deductions.

Fill out this form based on the best estimate of your circumstances.

Last name	First name and initial(s)	Date of birth (YYYY/MM/DD)	Employee number
Address including postal code		For non-residents only – Country of permanent residence	Social insurance number

1. Basic personal amount – Every person employed in the Yukon and every pensioner residing in the Yukon can claim this amount. If you will have more than one employer or payer at the same time in 2016, see "Will you have more than one employer or payer at the same time?" on the next page.

2. Family caregiver amount for infirm children under age 18 – Either parent (but not both), may claim $2,121 for each infirm child born in 1999 or later, that resides with both parents throughout the year. If the child does not reside with both parents throughout the year, the parent who is entitled to claim the "Amount for an eligible dependant" on line 8 may also claim the family caregiver amount for that same child who is under age 18.

3. Age amount – If you will be 65 or older on December 31, 2016, and your net income for the year from all sources will be $35,927 or less, enter $7,125. If your net income for the year will be between $35,927 and $83,427 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1YT-WS, Worksheet for the Yukon 2016 Personal Tax Credits Return, and fill in the appropriate section.

4. Pension income amount – If you will receive regular pension payments from a pension plan or fund (excluding Canada Pension Plan, Quebec Pension Plan, Old Age Security, or Guaranteed Income Supplement payments), enter $2,000 or your estimated annual pension income, whichever is less.

5. Tuition, education, and textbook amounts (full time and part time) – If you are a student enrolled at a university or college, or an educational institution certified by Employment and Social Development Canada, and you will pay more than $100 per institution in tuition fees, complete this section. If you are enrolled full time, or if you have a mental or physical disability and are enrolled part time, enter the total of the tuition fees you will pay, plus $400 for each month that you will be enrolled, plus $65 per month for textbooks. If you are enrolled part time and do not have a mental or physical disability, enter the total of the tuition fees you will pay, plus $120 for each month that you will be enrolled part time, plus $20 per month for textbooks.

6. Disability amount – If you will claim the disability amount on your income tax return by using Form T2201, Disability Tax Credit Certificate, enter $8,001.

7. Spouse or common-law partner amount – If you are supporting your spouse or common-law partner who lives with you and whose net income for the year will be less than $11,474 ($13,595 if he or she is infirm) enter the difference between this amount and his or her estimated net income for the year. If his or her net income for the year will be $11,474 or more ($13,595 or more if he or she is infirm), you cannot claim this amount.

8. Amount for an eligible dependant – If you do not have a spouse or common-law partner and you support a dependent relative who lives with you and whose net income for the year will be less than $11,474 ($13,595 if he or she is infirm and you cannot claim the family caregiver amount for children under age 18 for this dependant), enter the difference between this amount and his or her estimated net income. If his or her net income for the year will be $11,474 or more ($13,595 or more if he or she is infirm), you cannot claim this amount.

9. Caregiver amount – If you are taking care of a dependant who lives with you, whose net income for the year will be $15,940 or less, and who is either your or your spouse's or common-law partner's:

- parent or grandparent (aged 65 or older), enter $4,667 ($6,788 if he or she is infirm) or
- relative (aged 18 or older) who is dependent on you because of an infirmity, enter $6,788

If the dependant's net income for the year will be between $15,940 and $20,607 ($15,940 and $22,728 if he or she is infirm) and you want to calculate a partial claim get Form TD1YT-WS and fill in the appropriate section.

10. Amount for infirm dependants age 18 or older – If you support an infirm dependant age 18 or older who is your or your spouse's or common-law partner's relative, who lives in Canada, and whose net income for the year will be $6,807 or less, enter $6,788. You cannot claim an amount for a dependant you claimed on line 9. If the dependant's net income for the year will be between $6,807 and $13,595 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1YT-WS and fill in the appropriate section.

11. Amounts transferred from your spouse or common-law partner – If your spouse or common-law partner will not use all of his or her age amount, pension income amount, tuition, education and textbook amounts, or disability amount on his or her income tax return, enter the unused amount.

12. Amounts transferred from a dependant – If your dependant will not use all of his or her disability amount on his or her income tax return, enter the unused amount. If your or your spouse's or common-law partner's dependent child or grandchild will not use all of his or her tuition, education, and textbook amounts on his or her income tax return, enter the unused amount.

13. TOTAL CLAIM AMOUNT – Add lines 1 to 12.
Your employer or payer will use this amount to determine the amount of your territorial tax deductions.

Filling out Form TD1YT

Fill out this form only if you are an employee working in the Yukon or a pensioner residing in the Yukon and any of the following apply:

- you have a new employer or payer and you will receive salary, wages, commissions, pensions, employment insurance benefits, or any other remuneration;
- you want to change amounts you previously claimed (for example, the number of your eligible dependants has changed); or
- you want to increase the amount of tax deducted at source.

Sign and date it, and give it to your employer or payer.

If you do not fill out Form TD1YT, your new employer or payer will deduct taxes after allowing the basic personal amount only.

Will you have more than one employer or payer at the same time?

If you have more than one employer or payer at the same time and you have already claimed personal tax credit amounts on another Form TD1YT for 2016, you cannot claim them again. If your total income from all sources will be more than the personal tax credits you claimed on another Form TD1YT, enter "0" on line 13 on the front page and do not fill in lines 2 to 12.

Total income less than total claim amount

Check this box if your total income for the year from all employers and payers will be less than your total claim amount on line 13. Your employer or payer will not deduct tax from your earnings.

Additional tax to be deducted

If you wish to have more tax deducted, fill in "Additional tax to be deducted" on the federal Form TD1.

Reduction in tax deductions

You can ask to have less tax deducted on your income tax return if you are eligible for deductions or non-refundable tax credits that are not listed on this form (for example, periodic contributions to a registered retirement savings plan (RRSP), child care or employment expenses, charitable donations, and tuition and education amounts carried forward from the previous year). To make this request, fill out Form T1213, Request to Reduce Tax Deductions at Source, to get a letter of authority from your tax services office. Give the letter of authority to your employer or payer. You do not need a letter of authority if your employer deducts RRSP contributions from your salary.
